Guard Lock 21 of the Cornwall Canal

CORNWALL CANAL CONSTRUCTION

Built to overcome the Long Sault Rapids, it extended from the City of Cornwall to the Village of Dickinson Landing and was eleven miles in length.

Stage I — Commencement - 1834 - Completion date - 1843 (with locks 200 ft. in length; 45 ft. width and 9 ft. of water on the sills.)

Stage 2 (Enlargement) — Commencement - 1876 - Completion date - 1904 (with locks 270 ft. in length; 45 ft. width and 14 ft. of water on the sills.)

LIST OF KNOWN LOCKMEN at Lock No. 21 Dickinson Landing from 1904-1957 and residing at the Landing, Wales and Lunenburg.

Head Lockmaster	Lockmaster (After 1930)	Guard Gate Maple Grove	Lock Motorman
Jas. Shields	A. Dunlop	John McDonald	J. Stoneburner
and assistant	John Markell	Wilf Purcell	John Dawson
A. Blackburn	① Frank Dishaw ✓ INGLESIDE 537-2485		Philip Purcell
	Wm. Froats		John Legue
	② B. Whittaker ✓ INGLESIDE 537-2445		John O'Dette
	Chas. Clarke		John Waldorf
			Fred Empey
			Ellery Nesbitt
			③ Glen Crites ✓ OSNABRUCK CENTER 537-2056
			D. McColl
			Jack McMillan
			Cecil Empey
			W. Masterman
			James Warner

Note: Bruce Whittaker, Fred Empey, Ellery Nesbitt were signed on for employment at Lock No. 21 on May 1st, 1930. On this date also, the daily 8 hr. work schedule came into effect with a lockmaster for each shift. Prior to that, a work day was of twelve hours.

W. Purcell transferred from Guard Gate to Lock 21. Frank Cleary was employed on the construction of canal riprapping. John Dunlop, official diver entire canal system.

C O

Mileage S

0.00	Official Closures	L St. Law. November 30, 1968 July '58	East
0.01			Lock
0.25			By-p
0.32			Lock
0.43			Culv
0.82			Brid
1.55			Culv
1.65			Lock
1.84			Brid
3.16			Lock
4.06			Culv
4.76			Lock
5.04			Guar
5.99			Brid
10.38			Guar
11.00			West

CORNWALL CANAL - S

Length of canal .
Number of locks .
Guard gates . . .
Dimension of locks
Total rise of lock
Normal draught . .
Breadth of canal a
Breadth of canal a
Minimum overhead c

*A slight variance

The locks on this
the entire canal s

I wonder how many y
merely coming to an
and asking a captai
relay the message -
work, could you giv union card. In the a month and (room a